

I understand there may be some changes in LPFM and some radio stations may be taken off the air. I want you to know how important KLOVE radio station at 89.7 FM is important to the community here in Salt Lake City. KLOVE is a positive and encouraging part of my daily life and that of my children. There are very few radio stations that provide moral support for families and it is important to keep this station running.
Thank you